THE PLAYER

Born July 30, 1993, in Grijó, Porto, André Filipe Tavares Gomes is a Portuguese professional footballer who currently plays for the Spanish club Valencia CF, as a central midfielder.

His passion for football was revealed really early and at the age of 7 he joined Futebol Clube do Porto where he played until he turned 15. He then went to Boavista Futebol Clube before signing for Sport Lisboa e Benfica youth system at the age of 18, playing his last year as a junior with the Lisbon club.

On October 18, 2012, he made his official debut with the main squad.

On July 17, 2014, Gomes signed for the Spanish club Valencia CF making his La Liga debut on August 23, starting in a 1–1 away draw against Sevilla FC. He scored his first goal in the competition on September 22, netting the second of a 3–0 away win against Getafe CF and finished the season with 37 games total, 33 of those on the initial line up.

Gomes made his international debut in the Portugal National team on September 7, 2014, playing the full 90 minutes in a 0–1 Euro 2016 qualifiers loss against Albania and has been called to play for Portugal ever since.

THE PERSON

André is a very friendly and funny guy who loves to hang out with friends and family. His favorite sports are football and tennis and when he is not playing either one of them he usually likes to play video games, watch movies and spend time with his two dogs: Benny & Hatchi.

He currently lives in Valencia, Spain, and loves the weather and the atmosphere of the city. He mainly appreciates the way the endearment of the fans has always made him feel welcomed.

His major goal is to win an International trophy for Portugal and he will definitely be a force in the team with his commitment to improve everyday - as a player and as a person.

His caring character leads him to get involved in a number of philanthropic activities for which he wants no public credit.

He is grateful to his parents, friends, colleagues and specially to his fans who have believed in him and have stayed by his side encouraging him to always give his best.
